

State Gov. Laws & Authenticity of Farmer's Certificate.

According to the Land Revenue Act 1966, you cannot purchase agricultural land without a farmer's certificate otherwise, your existing status should be an agricultural landholder in India. Nowadays, being a farmer has become very simple because the Rajasthan Government has allowed non farmer buyers to buy agricultural land. At EcoLand, we offer you a Legal & Authentic Farmer Certificate to buy agricultural land in any state of India.

- Maharashtra Land Revenue Code, 1966.

According to the Maharashtra Land Revenue Code, 1966, A person who has not any kind of agricultural history on paper can't buy the agricultural land in Maharashtra. The farmer who has agricultural land in the name of himself and wants to sell it can sell such agricultural land to another farmer only and not to a non-farmer person. The government's purpose is to save the agricultural land from industrial or any other commercial use.

- Rajasthan Government's Law

In India, there are some other state governments that have the same rule as Maharashtra that does not authorize non-farmer buyers to purchase agricultural land. There are also several other state governments that permit non-farmers to purchase agricultural land on their territories. The Rajasthan government is one of those state governments that allows new individuals or non-farmers to buy agricultural land.
